

Council of Graduate Students

CGS participated in the new students orientation held on January 5th

CGS is working with STUCO to help students on state wide budget cut for higher education

CGS is working with graduate studies office and admissions office to increase the graduate student enrollment

CGS is conducting survey on graduate student satisfaction in the university

Graduate studies week dates have been finalized and will be during April 13th- April 17th.