

Report of the 2012 Journal Portfolio Review to the Library and Learning Resources Committee (LLRC)

The library has finished the journal pruning process for 2012. The full list is below. Three appeals have been made and are marked in blue. The library recommends retaining those titles and cancelling the rest. We had one request for a new title, Journal of Egyptian Archaeology, for a new faculty member. The library has sufficient funds to pick that title up.

Unless we hear to the contrary by Wednesday, the 24th, we will inform our subscription vendor of the recommended changes. Thank you all for your assistance!
